2nd Place
Above: an American Lady by Leena Robinson. Photo was taken on May 16, 2010 in Trophy Club, TX using a Nikon D80 camera with a Tamron 180 mm lens @ F/4, 1/2500 sec, ISO 200.

1st Place
Pages 50 and 51: A California Sister by Bob Gard. Photo was taken May 20, 2010 near Guatay, San Diego Co., CA using a Canon Digital Rebel camera with a Sigma 70-300 mm macro lens @ 300 mm using a shoulder stock; F/22, 1/200 sec, ISO 400; on camera fill flash at -1.

3rd Place
Left: A Variegated Fritillary by Ann Thering. Photo was taken on August 16, 2011 near Black Earth, WI using a Nikon D300 camera with a 200 mm lens using natural light @ F/7.1, 1/500 sec, ISO 640.

Honorable Mentions
Below: A White Peacock by Carol Carboni. Photo was taken in July 2011 in Everglades National Park, FL using a Canon Rebel T2i camera with a 55-250 mm lens @ 250 mm, F/5.6, 1/1600 sec, ISO 640. See page 54 for other honorable mentions.
Honorable Mentions

Above: A West Coast Lady by Sherri Woodbridge. Photo was taken in Oct. 2011 in Medford, OR using a Canon EOS 20D camera, natural light and a Canon 75-300 mm lens.

Right: A Spicebush Swallowtail caterpillar by Barbara Driscoll was taken on Aug. 18, 2011 in North Carolina using a Canon 40 D camera, a Canon 100 mm lens @ f/10, 1/640 sec, ISO 1000.

Polydamas Swallowtails get around
Poly = many; damas = ladies:
A male Polydamas Swallowtail mating with a female Pipevine Swallowtail.