2013 NABA Artists Contest

Thanks to all of the wonderful artists who participated in this year’s contest for sharing their creativity and energy with us. Choosing the winners was difficult!

First place goes to “The Prolific Paintbrush” (above) by Emily Yellow Bird of Wilsall, MT. 16” x 36”. Watercolor with paper cutting. 2013.

Second place goes to “Garden Visitor” (above) by Ronna Fisher of Lexington, KY. 11” x 14”. Acrylic on stretched canvas.

Third place goes to “Tiger in the Backyard” (next page) by Ronna Fisher of Lexington, KY.

Honorable Mentions go to works by George Bjorkland of Franklin Lakes, NJ, Molly Brown of Bolinas, CA, Chloe Chan of New York, NY, and Taffy Herridge of Broaddus, TX. (see pages 92-93).

Judges were Jeffrey Glassberg, president of NABA and John Yrizarry, well-known wildlife artist and naturalist.
Third place goes to “Tiger in the Backyard” (above) by Ronna Fisher of Lexington, KY. 11” x 14”. Oil on stretched canvas.

Opposite page, far left: Honorable Mention. “Untitled” by Taffy Herridge of Broaddus, TX. 10” x 10”. Embroidery.

Opposite page, near left: Honorable Mention. “Western Tiger Swallowtail” by Molly Brown of Bolinas, CA. 5” x 5”. Colored pencil.